

On the bankers request to intrude on my privacy I must object. If my bank wants to call me that is fine but how does any other bank see that as their right. It is my phone and I should be able to make that decision not them. Thank you.